COURSE OVERVIEW
2017 marks the 10th anniversary of Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia’s Annual Advanced Practice Nurse Conference. The conference covers timely professional topics and up-to-date clinical care of children and adolescents who present with complex medical and behavioral issues. Opportunities for interactive learning and professional networking will augment the didactic component of the course. The conference is targeted at advanced practice nurses in primary care and acute/ chronic specialties. Nursing and pharmacology CEUs will be provided by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation (ANCC).

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Madeline Bell, President and CEO, Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia

Ms. Bell began her career as a pediatric nurse in CHOP in 1983, later leaving the organization to move into hospital administration. She returned to CHOP in 1995 to lead Home Care and Case Management, and has since held a number of leadership positions, advancing from Vice President to Senior Vice President to Executive Vice President to Chief Operating Officer. In 2013, she assumed the title of President and CEO. Ms. Bell has made many contributions to CHOP, including the development of one of the largest pediatric ambulatory networks in the country, the implementation of a single-platform electronic health record, the expansion of the organization’s 8 million-square-foot campus, and the development of many nationally recognized clinical and family-centered care programs. Ms. Bell’s background in patient care has given her a deep appreciation for the clinical world, and she always stays focused on improving care for children.

GENERAL INFORMATION
The conference will be held in the Ruth and Tristram Colket, Jr. Translational Research Building at Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia.

REGISTRATION
The registration fee includes continental breakfast, breaks, lunch, reception, parking and program materials.

Full conference: $225
