Course Overview

This one-day conference for hearing healthcare professionals will address the importance of family-centered care and collaboration across medical and educational providers. Presenters in child development, behavioral psychology and family advocacy will share research, best practice guidelines and outcomes of children with hearing loss. Case studies highlighting how audiologists can foster collaborative care will also be discussed.

Course Objectives

1. Define family-centered care and its relation to families of children with hearing loss
2. List three indicators of a developmental disability and identify when to refer for an evaluation
3. Identify three stakeholders when forming interdisciplinary teams for children with hearing loss
4. Describe two strategies to use with patients who choose not to use their voice during appointments
5. List five signs of pediatric anxiety disorders and identify when to refer for an evaluation
6. Describe how family-centered care improves longitudinal outcomes of children with hearing loss

General Information

The conference will be held in the Ruth and Tristram Colket, Jr. Translational Research Building on the Raymond G. Perelman Campus of Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Registration will begin at 7:30 a.m. on Friday, March 8, 2019.

Course Fee

The registration fee of $140 (professionals) or $100 (full-time students) includes breakfast, lunch, parking and program materials.

Hotel Information

A block of rooms has been reserved at reduced rates at Sheraton Philadelphia University City (sheraton.com/UniversityCity), which is located just a few blocks from Children's Hospital. The group overnight room rate is $172 single and double occupancy plus a 16.37 percent room tax. Participants are required to make their own hotel reservations by calling the hotel directly at 215-387-8000. Please mention the name of the conference when making your reservation. The special room rate will be available until Friday, Feb. 8, 2019. After that date, reservations will be accepted on a space and rate availability basis.

Refund and Cancellation Policy

Children's Hospital of Philadelphia reserves the right to cancel or postpone any course due to any unforeseen circumstances. In the event of cancellation or postponement, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia will refund any registration fees, less a $25 service fee, but is not responsible for any related costs, charges or expenses to participants, including cancellation charges assessed by hotels, airlines or travel agencies. In order to process refunds for course withdrawals, cancellations must be received in writing by Friday, March 1, 2019. No refunds will be issued thereafter.

Services for People with Disabilities

If special arrangements are required for an individual with a disability to attend this meeting, please contact the Continuing Medical Education Department at 215-590-5263.
