

Zackai Legacy Society

Please join us in celebrating the legacy of DR. ELAINE H. ZACKAI as the inaugural recipient of the American Society of Human Genetics Mentorship Award and on her 45th anniversary of service to The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and
The Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania

Dr. Zackai's commitment and leadership to medical teaching excellence has changed the lives of countless patients and inspired numerous former trainees from across the world.

Now celebrating her 45th year of groundbreaking work in clinical genetics at CHOP, Dr. Zackai continues to transform the field with her innovative discoveries, compassionate care and enthusiasm for learning.
